

Prize for Student Engagement at the University of Regensburg

Award criterion

The Verein der Freunde der Universität Regensburg e.V. will again be awarding a prize for student commitment to a student, a student or a student team in 2025. The prize honors exemplary volunteer work that directly benefits other students and/or society as a whole. The engagement should be voluntary and be able to prove a connection to the University of Regensburg in terms of content or structure.

Prize amount

The prize money amounts to €2,000 and is awarded undivided.

Who can be nominated?

Either an individual or a group of students can be nominated. They must be enrolled at the University of Regensburg at the time of the award ceremony (Dies Academicus of the University of Regensburg on November 27, 2025).

Nomination deadline

Proposals can be sent electronically to the university administration by June 30, 2025 to the following e-mail: referat26@ur.de.

Documents

The following documents must be attached to each individual proposal and submitted as a PDF document (OCR-readable) in this order: curriculum vitae in tabular form (for individuals), certificate(s) of enrolment, brief description of the project/concept, laudation of the proposal and consent to the publication of personal data.

Selection procedure

The university management, representatives of the university management, the speaker's council and the deans of the faculties are entitled to nominate candidates. The decision on the awarding of the prize is made by the university management in consultation with Verein der Freunde der Universität Regensburg e.V.

Freunde der Universität Regensburg e.V.
c/o IHK Regensburg für Oberpfalz / Kelheim
D.-Martin-Luther-Str. 12
93047 Regensburg